The PADC reserves the right to:

- Cancel/alter scheduled dates for any PADC events where minimum attendance numbers are not reached.
- Change the location of any PADC event
- Substitute speakers for any PADC event.

In the event of an event being cancelled, the PADC will notify registered attendees via email, prior to the event date to offer an alternative event at an alternative date or to refund in full the event fee. If your payment is received after maximum numbers are reached, PADC will contact you and a full refund will be made.

Cancellations by Attendees

If you are unable to attend a booked event, a substitute attendee may be sent as a replacement (subject to approval).

If you wish to cancel more than 14 working days before the start of the event we will refund the cost of the ticket minus 50%.

If you wish to cancel less than 14 working days before the start of the event, no ticket costs will be refunded.

If you wish to cancel after the event has started, no ticket costs will be refunded.

All cancellations or postponements must be notified in writing to, Perth Advertising and Design Club, Club Manager at admin@padc.com.au

Once tickets are purchased and the attendance allocated to the event, in advance Purchaser requests for cancellations or refunds of Tickets prior to the event will only be allowed in PADC sole discretion in circumstances of demonstrated hardship or events beyond your reasonable control.

Where an event requires a minimum attendance and the event has been scheduled on the basis of bookings, cancellations will not be allowed where the cancellation will result in attendees being less than the minimum attendance requirements. Tickets may be transferred to friends or family members but may not be re-sold for profit.

Non-attendance

Non-attendance of any event due to illness, or for personal or professional reasons does not provide the right to refunds, or a transfer to another event.
